Dear Judge Webster:

On behalf of The MITRE Corporation, I cordially invite you to participate in the executive seminar "Automation and Telecommunications Challenges of the 1990s." We have sponsored seminars of this type for the past 12 years and they have been well received by the participants. This seminar is appropriate for senior government executives in decision-making roles involving information systems.

Please find enclosed twelve brochures and reply cards for distribution to people within your organization as you deem appropriate. Their participation is both encouraged and welcomed.

Should you have any questions regarding the seminar, please feel free to contact me at 883-6201 or Ken Miller at 883-7254.

Sincerely,

Edward C. Brady
